Supreme Court Says Futrell is Governor.

Special to the News.

Little Rock, Ark., March, 24—Without a dissenting opinion, the Arkansas Supreme court today declared Futrell Governor of Arkansas. The opinion was delivered by Chief Justice McCullough and is quite lengthy.

The opinion declares that when the office of Governor became vacant it passed to the President Pro Tempore of the State Senate, and, that the party who became governor under those circumstances ceased to be the President of the Senate that he also ceases to be Governor; in other words, when Futrell was elected President pro tem of the Senate to succeed Oldham, Oldham ceased to be Governor of Arkansas. Immediately after this opinion was handed down Governor Oldham called upon Governor Futrell and delivered the office to him and extended his congratulations, stating that the decision was perfectly satisfactory to him.

Governor Futrell appointed Andrew V. Smith, a member of the lower house from Bradley county, private secretary.

Governor Futrell will call an election to be held some time between July 20th and August 20th.

All pardons issued by Oldham, as well as commissions, since Futrell took the oath of office, were declared void and much speculation is being made as to what course will be pursued; bench warrants will probably be issued for parties who were pardoned by Oldham since Futrell was sworn in, and they will be carried back to the penitentiary. No commissions have been issued by Oldham except those of Notary Publics, however, important acknowledgements have been taken concerning large interests which may be affected.

TROUBLES OF TWEEDY ARE COMING FAST

Little Rock, March 24—The troubles of police Judge W. M. Tweedy are now coming thick and fast, and a special meeting of the City Council will be held Monday night at which arrangements will be made for impeachment proceedings which will be heard in the near future by the entire council sitting as an inquisitorial body. The charges will be preferred by Mayor Chas. E. Taylor and the Police Committee.

The charges against Police Judge Tweedy are to be numerous, according to the members of the Council, though an alleged assault made upon members of the restricted district of the city are said to be the base of all charges. The real charge will be "conduct unbecoming of a city official," and all others must be brought out of this. Three women of the red light district declare they were severely beaten by Police Judge Tweedy and have made charges against him before the Police Committee.

It is stated that the evidence presented before the council will also be taken before the Grand Jury, as one member of that body is also a member of the county inquisitorial board. There is also a report in circulation that government officials will be present at the hearing to determine if there is any ground for white slavery action by the Federal Grand Jury. It is reported that Judge Tweedy demands an early hearing, in order to have it over before time for his re-election in April. Should the hearing not be completed by that time, there will probably be opposition by an independent candidate, and should Judge Tweedy be removed from office the City Democratic committee will be requested to act and take his name from the ticket.

BOARD OF HEALTH STOPS SHOWS

At a meeting held in the offices of Health Commissioner W. V. Tompkins late Saturday afternoon the City Board of Health issued a bulletin closing the Gem Theatre and forbidding the Whitney Shows from holding a carnival here during this week. This action was taken in view of the small pox situation and we feel sure that every citizen appreciates this prompt action on the part of our efficient City Board.

ELKS MINSTREL FRIDAY NIGHT.

Little Rock, March 24—The Little Rock Lodge of Elks is now holding two rehearsals daily for the annual minstrel which will be given Thursday and Friday nights. The lodge usually nets about $1000 for its charity fund from this source each year, as the minstrel performances are equal to the professional shows, and are well attended.

CYCLONES SWEEP FOUR STATES

Special to the News.

Little Rock, March 24, 1:40 p. m.—Cyclones today swept over Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, and Indiana, practically demolishing Omaha and Terre Haute. The loss of life is estimated at over four hundred.

Another Storm Now Sweeping this Way.

With many sections of Arkansas still strewn with wreckage of the terrific wind of Thursday night, another storm is sweeping relentlessly in this direction and will strike this state today, according to the local forecaster. Coming from the Rocky Mountains and accompanied by heavy rains, the wind yesterday swept over Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Indiana, carrying death and devastation in its wake. The wind when it reaches Arkansas is expected to be accompanied by heavy rain, which will result in a big drop in the temperature with the probability of the mercury tumbling to freezing point.

While the extent of the approaching storm is not known, it is believed that it may equal the violence of the tornado of last Saturday.

Why We Welcome The Small Account

Banks quite frequently accept deposits and handle accounts which, because of their small, account, represent a distinct loss in clerical time and labor.

Nevertheless, this bank has long since adopted the plan of inviting the small depositor to transact his business with us in the hope that the assistance this bank can render his business will in time develop his account into a large and profitable one.

There are other other reasons, too. A large volume of small business furnishes ideal conditions for safe banking because the greater number of people this bank can serve, the greater its usefulness to the community.

And small deposits make it possible for us to make small loans and a large number of small loans, from a standpoint of safe banking, is preferable to a few large ones.
